Notes for JOSEPH BENARD:

JOSEPH BENARD et sa famille habitaient Wright, chemin Chénier, division de Gracefield. Cultivateur, contremaître dans les chantiers et marcheur de coupe de bois pour les compagnies sont les postes que JOSEPH occupa afin de subvenir aux besoins familiaux. De plus, il eut le bonheur de participer au transport de la première cloche de l'église de Gracefield. D'Ottawa, on la transporta dans un tombereau tiré par des chevaux. Les anciens gardent précieusement le souvenir du tintement de cette cloche qui se faisait entendre dans un rayon de trois milles. MARIE HENRI, son épouse, naquit au Lac Ste-Marie. Elle travailla comme ménagère pour le Révérend cure FAURE a Gracefield avant de fonder son foyer.

Âgée de 14 ans, MARIE HENRI unit sa destinée à JOSEPH BÉNARD, de quatorze ans son aîné. Dieu leur permit de donner la vie à 21 enfants dont 15 vivants actuellement.

MARIE ne se contentait pas d'être simplement épouse ou mère exemplaire, elle mettait au profit de la société son don spécial: la guérison des rhumatismes. Sa petite fille LELIANE raconte avoir été témoin de la force de sa grand-mère. Un jour, on lui présenta un homme immobile, enroulé dans des couvertures, qui souffrait en silence. Avec un linge de toile, mouillé dans une eau tiède et salée elle le frictionna pour activer la circulation. Son pouvoir et son habileté personnelle à "frotter" permirent à ce malheureux de retourner chez lui en fin d'après-midi soulager et en marchant. De nombreuses personnes furent guéries des rhumatismes grâce à son don. Même lors d'une hospitalisation, LELIANE rencontra l'abbé BENOIT qui lui confia devoir sa prêtrise à sa grand-mère. Elle l'avait libéré de ce triste fléau juste avant son ordination.

EDNA BENARD, jumelle de FERDINAND entra au cloître des Servantes de Jésus Marie à Ottawa. Se culpabilisant de la peine de ses parents qui n'acceptaient guère son choix, elle n'y resta qu'un an et étudia pour obtenir sa licence d'infirmière. Cependant, elle gardait secrètement au fond de son coeur, l'espoir d'y retourner un jour. Stagiaire à l'ancienne hôpital Général d'Ottawa alors qu'elle regardait des religieuses cloîtrées se promener dans leur jardin, elle confia à une compagne que sa véritable place était avec elles, l'autre côté de cette clôture. Malgré tout, EDNA aimait se divertir. Après avoir patiné une fin de semaine, elle se réveilla courbaturée, grippée et finalement on lui décéla une pneumonie. C'est ainsi, qu'à peine âgée de 22 ans, le Seigneur l'a rappela auprès de lui. Pourquoi être cueillie si tôt? Même jeune, en santé et pleine d'énergie, il est évident que voir la main de Dieu comblait ses desirs les plus profonds.
