

Descendants of Jacques James Robinson

Generation No. 1

1. JACQUES JAMES¹ ROBINSON died Bef. 1838. He married MARIE TROTTIER. She was born 1780, and died 10 Oct 1850 in St. Andrew's parish Cemetery, Argenteuil Co., Quebec age 70.

Notes for JACQUES JAMES ROBINSON:

Described in church documents as "Negre"; his wife as "femme de couleur".

Probably came from U.S. after American Revolution. The Seigneur of Argenteuil Seignior granted him lot #2 in the Cote du Midi settlement, on the south side of the range, measuring 3 by 30 acres, on November 21, 1804. Marie was 24 at that time.

On June 21, 1822 James Robinson went to the office of the notary Charles-Louis Nolin in Carillon to sell his land to a farmer named Rude Kingsbury for 100 Spanish dollars. In the census of 1825, he was still living at the Cote du Midi. There were 4 persons in the household: 1 married man between 40 and 60 (James), 1 married woman aged 45 or more (Marie Trottier), one male between 6 and 14, and 1 female between 14 and 18.
